Dear Roland,

My name is Sandra and I live in Ireland. My teacher gave me your name and e-mail address.

I want to tell you a little bit about myself . I am 15 years old and I live in a small town called Kiltimagh in the west of Ireland. There are only 1,000 inhabitants in our town, but many tourists come to Kiltimagh so it's always full of people, especially in summer. Sometimes I don't like that because the tourists can be rude.

I live with my parents and my sister Carina. She is older than me and sometimes she is very annoying. My father is gone a lot because of work, so I only see him at weekends. I have three good friends and we are always together. We play computer games and Gaelic football. Have you ever played it? Gaelic football is the best! It's a combination of football and rugby. It's a lot more fun than regular football and everyone in Ireland plays it.

I don't like school very much, but it's easy for me. We have German lessons three times a week but I haven't learned enough to write an e-mail in German yet (I hope you can understand my English!). Our school is small so next year I will probably go to Galway to a bigger school. Galway is one hour by bus from Kiltimagh, but that's OK because one of my friends is going to go there, too, so we can go together.

That's all I can think of for now. Tell me about yourself – where do you live? What is it like there? What do you do for fun? What sports do you like? Do you live in the mountains? One of my friends went skiing in Austria last year and he said it's really cool!

Write back soon!

Sandra
